This tax organizer has been prepared for your use in gathering the information needed for your 2016 tax return.

To save you time, selected information from your 2015 tax return has been entered in this organizer. Please line through any information that does not apply to your 2016 tax return.

In some cases, 2015 amounts have been included in a separate column. These amounts are for comparison purposes only. You do not need to change these prior year amounts.

If we may be of further assistance, please contact us at your convenience.

2016 Tax Engagement Understanding Letter

Dear Client:

We sincerely appreciate the opportunity to work with and advise you regarding your income taxes. Below we have outlined our duties and responsibilities as tax preparers, as well as our request for the information needed from you in order to prepare a complete and accurate return.

We will prepare your 2016 federal and state (if applicable) income tax returns from information you provide to us. We will not perform an audit or otherwise verify the data you submit, although we may ask you for clarification of some of the information. We will provide you the 2016 Tax Organizer through email communication (and by other means if you request so), which can be used as a guide in gathering your tax information. Your use of this organizer will assist us in minimizing the amount of time we spend in preparing your tax returns. It is your responsibility to provide us with the information required for the preparation of complete and accurate tax returns. It is also your responsibility that you have all documentation potentially required for substantiation upon examination by any taxing authority. For example, tax laws require that all charitable donations over $250 require written acknowledgment from the charity. You should retain all such documents, including cost basis, cancelled checks and any other data that form the basis of income, basis and deductions for a minimum of four years, as these may be necessary to prove the accuracy and completeness of the tax returns as filed if requested by a taxing authority.

Our work in connection with the preparation of your income tax returns does not include any procedures designed to discover defalcations or other irregularities, should any exist. Prior to commencing our work, we will discuss the need, and bill you accordingly, for accounting and bookkeeping assistance as we find necessary, for preparation of the income tax returns. We will use our judgment in resolving questions where the law is unclear or where there may be conflicts between the taxing authorities' interpretation of the law and other supportable positions. Unless otherwise instructed by you, we will resolve such questions in your favor whenever legally possible.

We encourage you to complete as much of the tax organizer as possible. Most of your 2015 amounts are preprinted, so you can easily verify that recurring items have been included. In addition, we request that you enclose any and all documentation received by the IRS, including, but not limited to, W-2s; 1099s; Forms K-1s; mortgage interest statements; and applicable real estate purchase and sale documentation. We will return original documentation to you upon request. If you made quarterly estimated tax payments during the year, please include the details of amounts, payees and dates paid. Some of the items in the tax organizer may not pertain to you. On the other hand, if the tax organizer excludes pertinent tax matters, please describe these in detail and provide the necessary information. Such items may include marriage, divorce, birth of a child, new job, loan refinance, inheritance, change of residence, etc.

Your returns will be completed as soon as practical after you give us your information. We will need to receive your information by March 24, 2017, to ensure meeting the April 15, 2017 filing deadline. You agree that if your tax returns cannot be completed by April 8, 2017, we will automatically file an extension on your behalf. This may require a tax payment to be made by you on or before April 15, 2017, for an amount approximating any unpaid federal and/or state tax liability. The exact final amount may differ upon receipt of any subsequent information necessary to complete your returns. You agree to assume responsibility for any differences in tax, including interest and penalties, arising out of subsequently filed tax returns.

By submitting your tax information to us, an agreement between you and Warring & Company, LLC exists to provide tax services related to your 2016 income tax return preparation. As a result, you hereby agree to both the terms of this engagement letter and payment in full of our invoices for professional services rendered, which will be billed upon completion of your tax returns. We reserve the right to assess a 1% monthly interest charge on invoices outstanding over 30 days.

Unless your income tax returns do not qualify, we will electronically file the returns from our offices. Prior to doing so, our policy is to forward DRAFT tax returns for your review. Upon your approval of the DRAFT tax returns, we will ask you to sign the appropriate tax forms, granting us the authority to electronically file the tax returns on your behalf.

When you have assembled your 2016 tax data, you may either contact us for an appointment to review your information or forward the information to us by U.S. mail, email or upload to our website. We will contact you with any questions after the information has been reviewed.

We want to express our appreciation for this opportunity to professionally serve you. Please contact James Warring or Joseph Lager directly with any questions or concerns you may have.

Best wishes for a healthy, happy and prosperous New Year.

Very truly yours,

Warring & Company, LLC, CPA's

PRIVACY POLICY

CPAs, like all providers of personal financial services, are now required by law to inform their clients of their policies regarding privacy of client information. CPAs have been and continue to be bound by professional standards of confidentiality that are even more stringent than those required by law. Therefore, we have always protected your right to privacy.

TYPES OF NONPUBLIC PERSONAL INFORMATION WE COLLECT

We collect nonpublic personal information about you that is either provided to us by you or obtained by us with your authorization.

PARTIES TO WHOM WE DISCLOSE INFORMATION

For current and former clients, we do not disclose any nonpublic personal information obtained in the course of our practice except as required or permitted by law. Permitted disclosures include, for instance, providing information to our employees and, in limited situations, to unrelated third parties who need to know that information to assist us in providing services to you. In all such situations, we stress the confidential nature of information being shared.

PROTECTING THE CONFIDENTIALITY AND SECURITY OF CURRENT AND FORMER CLIENTS' INFORMATION

We retain records relating to professional services that we provide so that we are better able to assist you with your professional needs and, in some cases, to comply with professional guidelines. In order to guard your nonpublic personal information, we maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with our professional standards.

Please call if you have any questions, because your privacy, our professional ethics, and the ability to provide you with quality financial services are very important to us.

Electronic Filing:

Electronic filing is the means by which your return is transmitted directly to the IRS and state tax authorities. The IRS has implemented an electronic filing mandate requiring certain preparers, including this firm, to file all returns that they prepare electronically. Some states also require certain preparers to electronically file state returns prepared. The IRS and some states allow taxpayers to elect not to file their returns electronically.

Do not electronically file the federal return

Do not electronically file the state return(s)

Note: The IRS and some states that require returns to be electronically filed also impose fee and/or penalties for failure to do so. If you checked either of the boxes above, you may be required to sign an "opt-out" form before we can release your returns. As a follow-up we will contact you to discuss these requirements and your ability to "opt-out" of electronic filing.

The IRS requires, and many states allow, the use of a Personal Identification Number (PIN) in lieu of mailing a signature document when electronically filing.

Electronic Filing:

Electronic filing is the means by which your return is transmitted directly to the IRS and state tax authorities. The IRS has implemented an electronic filing mandate requiring certain preparers, including this firm, to file all returns that they prepare electronically. Some states also require certain preparers to electronically file state returns prepared. The IRS and some states allow taxpayers to elect not to file their returns electronically. If you prefer not to electronically file your return, please refer to and sign the opt-out statement below. Because some states have official opt-out forms, additional signatures may be necessary before your return can be filed.

Opt-Out Statement:

WARRING & COMPANY, LLC, CPA's has informed me (us) that my (our) 2016 Individual Income Tax return may be required to be electronically filed if the firm files the return on my (our) behalf. I (We) understand that electronic filing may provide a number of benefits to taxpayers, including an acknowledgment that the IRS received the return, a reduced chance of errors in processing, and faster refunds. I (we) do not want to file my (our) return electronically and will personally file the paper return. My (our) signature(s) below represent(s) my (our) agreement that I (we) was (were) not influenced by my (our) preparer or any other member of the firm to sign this statement.

Electronic Filing:

Electronic filing is the means by which your return is transmitted directly to the IRS and state tax authorities. Electronic filing is the only filing method that provides you with acknowledgment that the IRS has received your return and is processing it. If you are to receive a refund and use direct deposit with electronic filing, you will normally receive your refund in about 3 weeks.

Please note that not all returns qualify for electronic filing under IRS rules.

Direct Deposit and Electronic Funds Withdrawal Account Information:

The IRS and certain states allow refunds to be deposited to and balances due to be paid directly from your financial institution. If you would like to receive your refund or pay a balance due electronically, complete the following information. If you selected either of these options in 2015, your account information may already be included below.

Form section 1: Questions about federal and state return payments, account details, and confirmation of information.

Form section 2: Duplicate of form section 1, for a second set of information.

U.S. Series I Savings Bonds Purchase

Up to $5,000 of your refund may be used to purchase U.S. Series I Savings Bonds for yourself, your spouse, and up to two other individuals, in $50 increments.

Do you want to use any of your refund to purchase any U.S. Series I Savings Bonds?

Yes	No
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

If Yes, provide the information requested for each type of bond you want to purchase using your refund.

If the purchase is for someone other than the taxpayer or spouse, or if the bond should have a co-owner or beneficiary, provide the name of the person receiving the bond (if not the taxpayer or spouse), the name of the person being designated as the co-owner of the bond, if applicable, the name of the person designated as the beneficiary of the bond, if applicable, and the amount of the bond to be purchased.

NOTE: Only complete Forms 34 and/or 35 if in 2016:

- You made gifts of cash or marketable securities to an individual that exceeded $14,000; or
- You made gifts of hard-to-value assets (such as closely-held stock) to an individual of any amount; or
- You made any transfers to a trust (including paying premiums on a life insurance policy that was transferred to a life insurance trust).

You should include all gifts made to each individual during the year, including gifts for his or her birthday, holiday, anniversary, graduation, etc. In addition, please include any gifts you made for educational or medical expenses. You can exclude amounts paid directly to a qualifying educational organization for tuition. You can also exclude amounts paid directly to health care providers if the expenses relate to nonelective medical expenses.

If you made any loans with an interest rate below the market rate of interest, provide details below.

If your most recent gift tax return was not prepared by us, include a copy.

For gifts other than cash, include a copy of any appraisal(s) of assets.

If no appraisal is available, describe how the value was determined.

For each gift made outright to an individual during the year, provide the following information:
